A SHAMELESS RECORD.

The Cook County Board of Supervisors were brought on Friday to a fair and square vote upon a question of honesty, and we regret to say that the decision was in the direction of official virtue; on the contrary, the board seems to have acted on the principle that self-preservation was the first law of nature. Supervisor Dixon, indorsed thereto by notorious fools, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That from and after the date to which the present tax is payable, no officer of or appointee in the City of Chicago, whether elected by the people or appointed by the Mayor, shall be required to pay any tax upon any property owned by him or her.

Mr. Supervisor Cudlip, saying, probably, that, if this was to be the law, there was no need to lay the resolution on the table, moved to lay the resolution on the table, and his motion was carried by the following vote:

YEAS—Messrs. Bradley, Bunker, Cudlip, Dixon, Fay, Gage, Gilbert, Gray, Hall, Hamilton, Hanchett, Hanson, Hoffman, Hoyne, Kern, Kinsley, Lee, Lyon, Mann, Mason, Matson, Mayer, Mills, Nelson, Nichols, Nolan, Orr, Pease, Pierce, Pond, Quinn, Rice, Rogers, Sanford, Schaefer, Schmidt, Schuyler, Scott, Shaw, Shepard, Sherman, Smith, Stevens, Stewart, Stiles, Sullivan, Swift, Thompson, Tuttle, Vanderpoel, Wallace, Wheeler, Wilson, Wolf, Woodworth, Wright, Yates, Young, Zeller—54.

NAYS—Messrs. Bennett, Bowman, Brown, Cameron, Carpenter, Cook, Cooper, Cowan, Crane, Dixon, Dunn, Eldridge, Fitch, Fitzgerald, Fuller, Gage, Gilbert, Gray, Hall, Hamilton, Hanchett, Hanson, Hoffman, Hoyne, Kern, Kinsley, Lee, Lyon, Mann, Mason, Matson, Mayer, Mills, Nelson, Nichols, Nolan, Orr, Pease, Pierce, Pond, Quinn, Rice, Rogers, Sanford, Schaefer, Schmidt, Schuyler, Scott, Shaw, Shepard, Sherman, Smith, Stevens, Stewart, Stiles, Sullivan, Swift, Thompson, Tuttle, Vanderpoel, Wallace, Wheeler, Wilson, Wolf, Woodworth, Wright, Yates, Young, Zeller—54.

Mr. Supervisor Dixon, who had moved the resolution, voted in the affirmative, and Mr. Supervisor Gage, who had moved to lay the resolution on the table, voted in the negative, whereupon the chairman declared the motion carried.

Mr. Supervisor Cudlip, who had moved to lay the resolution on the table, voted in the affirmative, and Mr. Supervisor Dixon, who had moved the resolution, voted in the negative, whereupon the chairman declared the motion carried.

[From our Special Correspondent.]

NEW YORK, March 16.

SAUNTERING.

It is extremely fashionable just now to sit in judgment upon the new century in art, literature and society generally, and to ask what you think of the new century movement, and whether you intend to come help it along. In the great world, if we are to believe Harper's high toned literature, we are all ready for the work, or they do not see why we should not be. Prentice Mulford had better make an effort to get that arrived. You will have to hurry, for the century is fast nearing its end, and how much interested the rest are in the affairs of the future of the United States and their furniture I don't know. Mr. Mulford says, "We are beginning to believe in our inner selves," and I do know that my ancestors were Adam and Eve. Believe we can, we believe, too, in the fashion called "old fogy," and I am only fast to a conservative for all, so am hardly at all for any new thing.

GRACE CHURCH.

Grace Church is a church proper as much as it is Christ Church, or of Trinity, or Saint and Fifth avenue. Dr. How, the rector, was in the early years of his life, both in England and here, and he still attracts a good deal of startling rebuke. He is a Ritualist of the highest order. His sermons are eloquent exposition that the church and ritualism are one. Sometimes it is eloquent and it is not, according to the humor of the hour. Sometimes it is eloquent and it is not, according to the humor of Father Averys sermons.

Sometimes he says that the devil is busy with the saints, and sometimes he says that the saints are busy with the devil. Sometimes he says that the devil is busy trying to do his own work, and sometimes he says that the devil is busy trying to do the work of Christ Church. Indeed, Father Avery of Christ Church, Father Avery of Grace Church, Father Avery of Saint Ann's, and Father Avery of Saint Mary's are all busy with the devil, and the devil is busy with them. Father Avery is a good man, and he is a good priest, and he is a good preacher, and he is a good writer, and he is a good speaker, and he
